«Californian sun from Switzerland»

(musikblog Miwi)

«It is, actually, a pure joy to listen to Before The Birds Start To Sing. It is full of u-turns and little surprises. And it is what lovers of albums want. Each song is strong and can perfectly stand on its own. However, put together, all the songs become something even more special. They complement each other and make each other shine. It is a real album. And, more importantly, a brilliant one!»

(musikblog Sway and Breathe)

«NEO&NEO connect authenticity and good melodies»

(radio RSD)

«Singer-songwriter to capture the whole wide world. NEO&NEO sound a bit like the wideness of America, a bit like the green hills of England – but still they are descendents from good old Switzerland»

(TV JOIZ)

«You should definitely keep an eye on NEO&NEO. Before the Birds Start to Sing is their first LP, and it certainly doesn't sound like a first LP. If they keep doing what they're doing, and finding the right support (like they did when they snagged Swiss producer Philippe Laffer), you'd be missing out by missing them»

(musicblog, That's Why We Musyc)

«Indie-Folk, ballads, sixties-feeling. NEO&NEO focus on well thought out arrangements» (newspaper, BAZ)

*«Before the Birds Start to Sing is more than a music album. It's an opportunity to feel authentic emotions and create new perspectives (...) High Spirits brings me to tears. I've been there, no, I am there quite often. It's that fight between the highs and lows of life. This song is my favorite track on the album»
(musicblog, Helvetune)*
