

Neo & Neo – Independent folkpop

Inspired by Californian landscapes, folksingers of the 60ies and modern surfbands, Before the Birds Start to Sing was released in fall 2016 as the band's first longplayer. Neo & Neo is Swiss born musician Dominik Robin. Change emerges from crisis, as Robin experienced in 2012 when he started Neo & Neo. The album depicts the moment before dawn, when everything is still possible:
